

Produce Report

Produce- The yellow onion market continues to trend modestly lower. The shipping point yellow onion market could continue downward during the next few weeks if more supplies become available. The Idaho potato markets are mixed. Smaller sized Idaho potato stocks are adequate. However, larger sized Idaho potato supplies are limited and the markets are firm. The Idaho potato harvest will get underway next month which eventually could put modest downward pressure on the potato markets. The Idaho potato crop is ahead of last year with 94% rated in good to excellent condition.
